Report

On 19 January 2023, a career counseling session for college students was organised by the Department of English in collaboration with the Employment and consultation centre of University of Lucknow. The session began with the address of the principal, Professor R D Dwivedi, who encouraged and motivated the attendees with the message that in time and appropriate focused preparation opens up many venues of employment. The expert officer, Mr. Himanshu Singh had an elaborate interaction with the students. He discussed about some of the important current affair's issues with them and guided them how to answer in concisely effective manner. He also made a PowerPoint presentation to inform and guide the UG students that how to prepare for the various possible opportunities of employment in future. All participants got registered themselves at the center's employment website and also provided email and contact number for further inquiry and guidance. Students' response was very positive and they also requested for further such sessions. The event was completed with vote of thanks extended by professor Jyoti kala, head of the department of English, to the expert and his team.
