

Department of Commerce

The Department of Commerce was established during the session 2009-10 on Self-Finance basis.

Since then the Department has developed and the Lucknow University has been kind enough to allow three sections in B.Com. Since its inception the Department is progressing well under the visionary guidance of college Management. The department is showing excellent results under the supervision of highly qualified teachers. Our learned and qualified faculty provides regular academic guidance through class room teaching, various online modes, proper notes, model papers, question banks and recorded videos and audios of their lecture.

Besides the educational programmes the Department has been organising lectures from the senior professors and senior officials of the government departments relating to the field of commerce. The department has also been organising several cultural activities i.e., dance competition rangoli competition, debates, and essay competition among the students. The department is regularly organising special lectures for the students to develop their general knowledge and commercial knowledge enhancement which can assist them in self- development and getting better employment opportunities. Our students have attained various positions and prizes in the competition organised by the other institutions as well. The department has been regularly associated with various management institutes which organises career counselling and personality development discussions with our students in the college campus. For providing professional exposure to aspiring students, the department is focusing on industry-institution interface where many students have benefitted a lot in getting job opportunities since inception. Several students in different years have been placed in good positions in the reputed organisations.

To keep in pace with the modern teaching methods, the department is incorporating smart learning education system (SMART Classes) for this the department has a separate smart classroom which attempts to develop smart learning skills among the students. Our department has it's own enriched library. The department is running certified computer course by NIELIT, which is meant for value creation and job enhancement for students of our college and other colleges also.

The department is successfully running an add-on course on GST. This year has been proved to be a milestone as our UG course (B.Com) got permanent affiliation and we also got affiliation to run the PG course (M.Com Pure) under the aegis of Lucknow University.

The department is committed to integrate all facets of commerce and management to educate and train innovative and competent human resource suitable for industry, business and service sector and to equip and encourage them to start their own ventures in urban or rural areas benefitting both the classes.

Dr.D.D. Mishra

Head